

STATUTE

ARTICLES

Of non profit Cultural Association “ PANDOLEA”

ARTICLE 4 (Nature of Association)

Pandolea is a no - profit and voluntary association.

Members are expected to behave correctly in both the internal relations with other partners and with third parties.

The Association can take part as member in societies and /or associations and/or committees that have the same targets; and also it can participate in other recognized body.

ARTICLE 5 (Association targets)

The association targets are:

- a) To increase, to develop and to improve female entrepreneurship in small and medium Italian extra virgin olive oil firm producers.
- b) To improve and value: the extra virgin Italian oil of certificated origin and not, derived products, similar and of product chain. To promote firms managed by woman (excluding those deal in phases of filling and /or marketing – distribution).
- c) To improve our territories where are made quality production, initiatives to make know the traditions of olive trees and oil culture and artistic, landscape and gastronomic patrimony that characterize all olive growing Italians areas.
- d) To promote the reception in the oil mills in oil firms, inter – sectorial agreements for the development of a tourism relative to oil production, for example with : agritourisms , restaurants and hotels.
- e) To intervene with the competent technical and/or legal bodies why are issued rules and regulations for the protection and regulation of production and eco – environmental olive oil processes and the food industry.
- f) All activities to reach these targets , as study, publishing initiatives, organization of courses, conferences, conventions that relate the promotion and the disclosure of wine and food of quality, also from a historic / social and cultural point of view and with particular attention to health aspect of extra virgin oil in a correct diet and in prevention of such illness of social importance.
- g) To improve exchanges, national and international opening between countries that produce and use the extra virgin oil.
- h) To establish territorial sections (local, national or international), with members who live in the geographical area concerned.
- i) To follow the recognition of the Association in any background, in particular that legal

The Association can:

1. To establish fixed or temporary collaborative relationship, in possible ways, with anyone want to enhance products.
2. To participate in international, national and local initiatives consistent with the association targets.
3. To organize and to participate, directly or by means of propulsive actions, to all expected in letter a) of this article.
4. To take care of training aspect, organizing update, training and qualification activities also in collaboration with others.
5. To promote and encourage the research for the improvement of oil production quality also in reference to technological process;
6. To promote and organize tours in firms for operators and journalists.

Activities to increase the presence of extra virgin oil produce by small and medium Italian Firms for national and foreign trade, are allowed.

The Association can do promotional sales of members' products.

MEMBERS

Article 6 (members requirements)

1. Members can be all women producers and women who work for oil production such as businesswomen, technicians, tasters, journalists and researchers; and all women want to support, to develop and to promote the woman entrepreneurship in small and medium firms that produce extra virgin oil of Italian olive of certificated quality.

Members can be also societies, associations, public or private bodies with similar targets like of article 6 c. 2 letter d).

Furthermore members can be all people who shares the Association target and who work to increase and to support the name of Association as required by article 6 c. 2 letter c).

2. Members are divided into following categories:
 - a. Founder members: who have created the Association and share the same targets.
 - b. Effective members: women producers and women who work in the oil production, as required by c. 1 of present article; who makes application for membership to Association and obtain the admission from Directive Council.
 - c. Honorary Members: people who has distinguished themselves in activities on behalf of Association and who accepts the adhesion proposed by the President of Association.
 - d. Supporter members: they can be people, societies, associations, public or private bodies that support the Association targets with their activities or are interested in enjoyment of this Association.

Every Supporter Members is represented in the Association by means of one of his delegate who, if he is a different person from the legal rapresentant, has to have a written proxy.

3. All members, without difference of categories, can:

- a. Participate to Association life and its events.
- b. All members have right to vote and are eligible for offices, after to have provided they are in compliance with the payment of social shares . Who are not up to date with payments are convened to Partner's Meeting but they can participate only if they regularize their position.
- c. The adhesion to the Association is for a permanent time and it can't be temporary.

Associative shares cannot be transmitted to other person, only in case of death and they are not reevaluated.